

LIVE RESUME

Become more than just piece of paper to employers!

April 6, 2017

Chemeketa Community College in Salem, OR

What: Live Resume is an excellent and unique opportunity for job seekers with disabilities to meet and network with local employers in an intimate and supportive environment. During the main event, every participant will have up to three minutes to verbally present their “Live Resume” to a room full of recruiters and hiring managers who are looking to fill positions within their organization. After the presentations, there is an hour of networking with the employers. Leading up to the main event, participants must be available for a practice session, where they work on their presentation and learn how to best communicate their skills and abilities.

When/Where: Live Resume - Main Event: Thursday, April 6 (noon - 2pm)
Live Resume - Practice Session: Monday, April 3 (noon - 2pm)

Who: Job-ready individuals with disabilities will meet with representatives from MANY organizations (list will be available to job seekers leading up to the event).

Where: The practice session is at South Salem Vocational Rehabilitation and the main event is at Chemeketa Community College. Specific location info will be given to participating job seekers.

Why: To increase your network, build skills and confidence, and learn about area job opportunities!

How: Send your resume to Kali Giaritta at kali@incight.org to get signed up. Space is limited, so sign up today!

Questions: Contact Kali Giaritta at kali@incight.org or (971) 244-0305.

The event is presented by Incight and Oregon Vocational Rehabilitation and space is generously donated by Chemeketa Community College.
